

Briefings and Presentations from the Economist Intelligence Unit

The Insight Bureau represents the Economist Intelligence Unit, a world leader in global business intelligence. Insight Briefings is a service provided by The Insight Bureau specifically designed to help business executives with the challenges of operating in an increasingly complex and competitive global market. This is delivered by a pool of resources including selected members of the Economist Intelligence Unit's global network of analysts, economists and experts, delivering reliable analysis, tailored specifically to their company, industry and market.

- ◆ Global or regional outlooks
- ◆ Country trends and forecasts
- ◆ Operational risk analysis
- ◆ Sovereign risk analysis
- ◆ Industry issues and trends
- ◆ Market sizing

Selected members of the Economist Intelligence Unit editorial team -- available through The Insight Bureau
	Robin Bew Editorial Director & Chief Economist Global Economy & Risk London	Stephen Xu Sitao Director, Corporate Network China China Economy & Business Beijing
	Robert Ward Director of Global Forecasting Global Economy & Risk & Japan London	Mary Boyd Director, Corporate Network China China Economy & Business Shanghai
	Jan Friederich Senior Economist Global and Asia Economy & Business Hong Kong	Graham Davis Director, Corporate Network Japan Japan Economy & Business Tokyo
	Delia Meth-Cohn Senior Consultant CEEMEA Emerging Markets, CEE, Middle East Vienna	Ross O'Brien Director, Corporate Network Hong Kong Asia Economy & Business & Infocoms Hong Kong
	Laza Kekic Director, CEEMEA Russia, Central & Eastern Europe London	Leo Abruzzese Editorial Director, North America Economics, Business & Financial Services New York
	Denis McCauley Director, Global Technology Research Business Technology, Infocoms London

Last Update: 20th February 2010