

Wei Du

Hong Kong Correspondent
Channel News Asia

Moderator on Asian Business, China & Regional Affairs

An International Journalist in Business & Economics who Moderates in English & Chinese

Professional experience

- Wei Du is a leading broadcast journalist with Channel News Asia (CNA). Her previous experience was with Bloomberg TV.
- Based in Hong Kong, Wei Du reports and presents on the politics, economics and business of China and Hong Kong. She secures interviews with top newsmakers, including government ministers and leading international business leaders.
- During her time with CNA, where she was also previously based in Singapore, where she co-anchored the channel's flagship midday news bulletin, "Asia Connect", and also hosted the channel's highly rated reality show, "Invest in Me."
- Wei Du has also reported from around the SEA region, including from Timor Leste on its national-building efforts.

Sample assignments

- Wei Du has moderated conferences and business meetings, especially in China where Mandarin and English were both prerequisites for the role:
- She has managed events as diverse as commodities conferences to banking & investment forums to technology and innovation events.
- She has conducted in-conversation and moderated sessions with international keynotes including Larry Summers.

Wei Du – Personal Bio-data

- Her previous professional role was with Bloomberg in Hong Kong
- Previously she worked International Channel Shanghai, in Shanghai, China.
- She was born in China, educated at Renmin University of China in Beijing, and is a graduate of the Graduate School of Journalism at Columbia University.
- She speaks fluent English and Mandarin.